

Hull Women's Aid

Supporting Women, Children and Young People experiencing Domestic Abuse

CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S DOMESTIC ABUSE PRACTITIONER

One post - 37 hours per week 3-year fixed term contract

Salary £29,777- £31,364 (pro rata) Plus Benefits

We are seeking a highly motivated and compassionate Children and Young People's Practitioner to join our dynamic team. This pivotal role will provide direct, specialist support to children and young people who have experienced or are experiencing domestic abuse. The successful candidate will work creatively and therapeutically to help children and young people understand their experiences, develop coping strategies, build resilience, and ultimately thrive.

The role requires flexibility and is subject to an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check.

The above post is open to Women only under Schedule 9, Part 1, and Paragraph 1 of The Equality Act 2010.

Hull Women's Aid values diversity promotes equality and challenges discrimination. We encourage and welcome applications from people of all backgrounds. We particularly welcome applicants from black minority and ethnic communities.

Hull Women's Aid is a Disability Confident employer. Please feel free to email us at admin@hullwomensaid.org if you require any additional support to apply for this role.

Due to the number of applications we receive, Hull Women's Aid cannot communicate further with applicants who are not shortlisted for interview. If you do not hear from us within two weeks of the closing date, please assume that your application was not successful this time.

Closing date for applications is midday on Monday 20 April 2026

Interviews to be held on Monday 27 April 2026

Application packs are available from www.hullwomensaid.org or

by emailing admin@hullwomensaid.org