

Hull Women's Aid

Reg. Charity No: 1160440

Offering Protection, accommodation, advice and support to Women and Children and Young people experiencing domestic violence.

Job Description

Job Title: Children and Young People's Support Worker

Responsible to: Hull Women's Aid Service Manager

Overall Purpose of the Job: The post holder will provide high quality support and safety planning to Children and young people experiencing domestic abuse.

To take part in 24 hour On Call Service

Job Aims

- To provide direct help, advice and support to children, young people and mothers affected by domestic violence based on individual assessments of need. This may also include group provision where appropriate.
- To compliment the service of the nursery nurse and other children & young people's workers (C&YP workers).
- To compliment the aim of Hull Women's Aid in promoting a holistic response to women, children and young people that prioritises their safety and well-being.
- To ensure that when children and young people's needs remain unmet, appropriate sign posting or referrals to other agencies are undertaken, according to policy procedures.
- To ensure that children and young people's needs and views are integrated in the reviews and development of the service.
- To draw on the standards, skills and expertise of other staff to ensure a safe, assured and competent service to children.

Main duties and Responsibilities

- To undertake direct work with women, children and young people who have experienced domestic violence. This will involve individual and family work (parent and child). Depending on assessment of needs and expressed views.
- To evaluate the direct work with women, children and young people.
- To provide advice to parents in consultation with other workers.
- To identify and develop practice relationships with representatives of key agencies, with a view to increasing the responsibilities for services to women, children and young people affected by domestic violence.
- To work in partnership with other services.
- To contribute to awareness raising initiatives as part of Hull Women's Aid.
- To attend team meetings and Management Group meetings.
- To plan, record and review work in accordance with Hull Women's Aid policies, practices and procedures.
- To receive supervision from designated person.
- To carry out such additional duties as may reasonably be required from time to time by the manager.

Note:

- A flexible approach to the work is essential.